

Recent Publications by Richard Lewis

All publications are available from
The Touchstone Center
(www.touchstonecenter.net),
your local bookseller or Amazon.com

Please join our email list at touchstonecenter.net. You can also follow our facebook page at facebook.com/TouchstoneCenter.

To See
Photographs by Helen Buttfield, Text by Thoreau, Ed. Richard Lewis
And like Thoreau, Helen Buttfield is telling us to see – in order that we might, once again, be fully participating in this, our earth's 'flowery revolution.' – Terri Tibbatts, Book Artist
$20.00

Play, Said the Earth to Air
Illustrated by Heidi Neilson
...a book of extraordinary simplicity and beauty...a little gem that is more than a book – it is an act of kindness.
– Morgan Leichter-Saxby, Pop-Up Adventure Play
$12.00

Living by Wonder: The Imaginative Life of Childhood
... a stirring defense of the wonder that is the birthright of every child.
– Chris Mercogliano, Teaching the Restless
$12.00

When Thought is Young: Reflections on Teaching and the Poetry of the Child
...a small but profound book about the poetic nature of the young child.
– Parent and Preschool Newsletter
$7.95

Taking Flight, Standing Still: Teaching Toward Poetic and Imaginative Understanding
Once again, Mr. Lewis shows us the hidden world of childhood and makes us want to change our own classrooms into magical places.
– Vivian Gussin Paley, author of A Child's Work: The Importance of Play
$15.00

The Bird of Imagining: Illustrated by Children from New York City Public Schools
A stunningly beautiful book...
– Thomas Berry, author of The Dream of the Earth
$16.00

A Tree Lives
Illustrated by Noah Baen
...leads readers inside an ordinary tree, where its dreams and musings give birth to a separate universe.
– Teacher Magazine
$12.00

We Are Rivers
Illustrated by Kathy Creutzburg
... a unique blend of poetry and art . . . Choice reading for younger readers...and an excellent pick for community and school library collections.
– Midwest Book Review
$12.00

Each Sky Has Its Words
Illustrated by Gigi Alvaré
...the clearest best message of a life attuned to nature.
 — Jeff Lee, River Lee Books
 $10.00

I Catch My Moment: Art and Writing by Children on the Life of Play
...a tiny gem of a book that combines children's artwork with their breathtakingly poetic descriptions of play.

— Play Times
 $10.00

Sea Tale
Illustrated by Gigi Alvaré
....a mythic retelling of how children first found the purpose of their play – simply a piece of art.
 — Sherry M. Cleary, NYC

Early Childhood Professional Development Institute
 $10.00

Hofstra University
 $10.00

From the Sleep of Waters
Illustrated by Susan Joy Share
...a treasure, for anyone, of any age, who loves the magic of words and art.
 — Stormy Brandenberger,

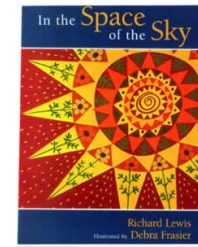

the physical world.
 — The Bardian
 $14.95

Shaking the Grass for Dew
Poems by Richard Lewis
Shaped by Japanese and other nature-inflected styles, these brief poems are deeply spiritual in their descriptions of elements, joy, love, and communion with also a significant part of what makes us human ... Read this book and look right into the cave of imagination!"

 — Patrice Vecchione. Author of Writing and the Spiritual Life
 $14.00

Cave: An Evocation of the Beginnings of Art
Illustrated by Elizabeth Crawford, Photographs by George Hirose
"...reminds us that the impulse to make art is

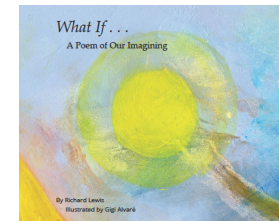

In the Space of the Sky
Illustrated by Debra Frasier
...a true and synergistic collaboration between language and collage. It will feed children's need for color, for myth, for hope, for belonging to the whole of the earth.
 — Riverbank Review
 $16.00

Carol Grocki Lewis created to illustrate Richard Lewis' poem Enchantments of the Earth – evoking the nature of seeds as they are planted in the earth."
 $15.00

Enchantments of the Earth

Plates and Sculptures by Carol Grocki Lewis
"This book brings together the ceramic vessels, plates and freestanding objects, our senses and imaginations open up to the possibilities and interconnectedness of all life."

 — Mary Mix, The Rockwell Museum
 $12.00

What If ... A Poem of Our Imagining
Illustrated by Gigi Alvaré
"This book takes us to that place where